Blackcode

Blackcode is a DJ and Producer who is determined to show the world his progressive sound.

Gathering millions of streams across multiple platforms with his releases on Hardwell's Revealed Recordings and Blasterjaxx' Maxximize Records (Spinnin' Records), this young Italian is already making serious moves. Add to that high hitting collaborations with legendary producers Blasterjaxx and Dash Berlin and you have got a recipe for success. No wonder Spotify decided to give him the honour of being featured in their global New Music Friday playlist, something which doesn't happen to many DJ/Producers.

When it comes to stage experience, Blackcode is definitely on the right track as well. Having performed at festivals and in clubs in Japan, Norway, Spain, The Netherlands and Italy, he manages to surprise sizable crowds with his charismatic stage presence.

Be sure to keep up with this talent, because you do not want to miss the rest of Blackcode's musical journey
